

DAVA Project honoured with eASIA Awards 2015

The e-ASIA Awards are administrated by the Asia Pacific Council for Trade Facilitation and Electronic Business (AFACT). The event aims at promoting the achievement of AFACT member countries/economies in the development of trade facilitation, electronic business policies and activities, and initiatives for bridging digital divide in the Asia Pacific Region. The purpose of the eASIA Awards is to recognize the significance and great effort made within AFACT community and to encourage exchange of best practices. There are four categories of awards namely Trade Facilitation, Electronic Business in the Public Sector, Electronic Business in the Private Sector and Bridging Digital Divide.

The awards focus on projects that enhance international trade and e-Business; increase information visibility by evaluating the concrete effects on trade regulatory and facilitating agencies control and security; tax-related efficiency; trade promotion and business efficiency; a leading model in terms of simplification in trade procedures; single entry point; innovative application of international standards and recommendations etc.

The DAVA project was awarded eASIA Award 2015 under ‘Trade Facilitation’ category.
